Certified Training Associate
Eileen M. Russo, M.A., LADC

EILEEN M. RUSSO, M.A., is a licensed addiction counselor, a certified clinical supervisor, and a certified co-occurring disorders professional who has worked in the addiction and mental health field for the past 31 years. Ms. Russo is an Associate Professor for the Drug and Alcohol Recovery Counselor program with Gateway Community College. For the past 11 years, she has served as a trainer/consultant with the CT Women’s Consortium for the Connecticut Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services’ Trauma Initiative. In addition to teaching and training, she specializes in treating co-occurring PTSD in mental health and substance abuse populations and has assisted agencies with developing trauma-informed mental health/substance abuse treatment programs for men, women, and children across Connecticut.

Ms. Russo has co-authored articles on the integration of trauma-specific services into substance abuse treatment and is a co-author of the curriculum Healing Trauma: A Brief Intervention for Women, Second Edition, by Stephanie Covington. She is the principal consultant for the implementation of Healing Trauma, Beyond Violence, and Helping Women Recover in York Correctional Institute. Ms. Russo also is an adjunct faculty member at the University of Bridgeport. Sometimes cited as being too idealistic, she has managed to maintain her passion for her work and the belief that everyone deserves the best possible and most ethical treatment, care, and support.
